About Corbis and the Collections

Why
choose Corbis
Images
Royalty-
Free?

Great images start with great shooters and editors.

Our photographers have won the highest accolades, including Clio and New York Art Directors awards - even an exhibition in the Guggenheim. Our very choosy editors then select the final images from hundreds of thousands submitted to us every year.

If we don't have it, we shoot it.

When our customers tell us what they want, we make it happen. Our team of art directors and photographers are constantly creating fresh new material.

Excellent images demand excellent scans.

Every image is scanned on a Heidelberg drum scanner, and meticulously color balanced and retouched.

Usage fees are a thing of the past.

All 100 images on each CD are yours to use, forever, for one low price – no negotiation, no usage fees, no hassle.
